Our Mission

The Philomath Performing Arts Benefit Fund (PPABF) is building an endowment fund to provide incremental, perpetual financial support to the performing arts in the Philomath schools to maintain strong, enriching programs for the students and families in our community.

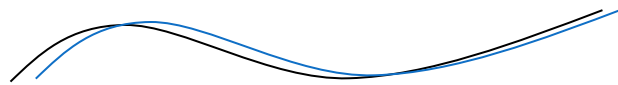

Grants Issued to Date

We first started raising money in 2017 and have been giving out grants to the performing arts programs in Philomath for the last six years, totaling $38,000.

Here is just a partial list of what the PPABF has been able to fund through our endowment grants:

- ♪ New instruments: piccolos, bells, base drum, recorders, keyboards, ukuleles, baritone sax, guitars; numerous instrument repairs
- ♪ Risers, railings, chairs, and music stands
- ♪ Set materials for the theater program
- ♪ Sheet music and music supplies

Campaign 500

As of December 2023, we have over $245,000 in our endowment fund. Now, the PPABF Board has launched “Campaign 500” — our focused effort to reach $500,000 in our endowment fund in the next three years. With that amount of capital, the Board could grant up to $20,000 to the performing arts programs each year, every year, forever.

Progress to Date

How You Can Partner

Please consider making a tax-deductible gift to the Benefit Fund for our endowment to help us reach our Campaign 500 goal. With your help building this permanent fund, we can provide even larger grants to the performing arts in Philomath, ensuring success of these programs for generations of students.
